

MIDNIGHT LUTE
Real Quiet - Candytuft by Dehere

I just think at $15,000
Midnight Lute is very good value.

Especially for a stallion that was the 17th leading stallion by earnings in the country last year.

He has consistently proven that he can get a good racehorse.

They sprint, they can go long, and they are generally very good looking.

I've had a lot of success selling them, racing them, and I like stallions that are flexible that way.

I think in that $10,000-$20,000 range it's very difficult to find a proven, solid stallion like Midnight Lute.
